COUNTY BAKERS ORGANIZE TO ASSIST FOOD ADMINISTRATION

Observance of Regulations To Be Strictly Adhered To by Members

"SLACKERS" WILL BE PUNISHED

At the call of Food Administrator J. L. Lockhart of the county, the bakers of the county held a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the public meeting room of the court house for the purpose of effecting an organization to be known as the "Washington County Bakers' Service Association." This name was suggested by J. W. Fleming, who is acting as a lieutenant for Mr. Lockhart among the bakers of the county.

The meeting which was attended by almost every licensed baker in the county to the number of 70, was called to order by Mr. Lockhart who explained the objects of the meeting and that it was in line with the national and state organizations of bakers, for the purpose out the requirements of the government and the food administration in these war times. He said that in this state there was a state chief and under this chief there is what is termed in each county a lieutenant. F. W. Haller of Philadelphia is state chief and J. W. Fleming of Washington is his lieutenant. Mr. Fleming recently attended the meeting of lieutenants and bakers at Reading and later a meeting of the lieutenants at Harrisburg.

He found that through the country and state the bakers are organizing so that they may patriotically observe to the letter the rules laid down by the food administraton. Mr. Lockhart impressed upon the bakers that they were expected to obey these rules as formulated by the food administration, otherwise they would be subject to punishment. He told them they were expected to use the substitutes just as directed and not otherwise, or they would be liable to lose their license. He also urged upon them the importance of sending in weekly reports. There were a few he said, who are not living up to the rules and he warned them that they were liable to lose their license and if they did so that meant practically going out of business. The idea of the organization is to exchange views as to formulas for turning out as satisfactory a loaf of victory bread as can be turned out with theuse of substitutes.

Mr. Fleming, who took charge after Mr. Lockhart had turned the meeting over to the bakers, impressed upon the bakers their patriotic duty in doing their part in food saving. He told them that all could not go over there and fight but they could do their part in observing strictly what the food administration is asking of them

A nominating committee was named to suggest officers. These officers were upon a report of the committee, chosen:

President, J. W. Fleming, Washington; vice president, James Stevenson, Charleroi; secretary, Miss Laura Driehorst, Washington; treasurer, August Dietz, Canonsburg. Directors L. P. Driehorst, Washington; W. A. Cheesebrough, McDonald; H. C. Sutman, Monongahela.

Al Eckard of the Duquesne, formerly in command of the Keenan, for the time being, with James Hayes assuming command of the Duquesne and will be assisted by Capt. Frank Crawford as pilot. The work of the Clairton will be watched with much interest by rivermen.

PENALIZE VIENNA BAKERY OF MONESSEN

Local Food Administrator Darby received word this morning from Food Administrator Barclay of Westmoreland county that the Vienna Baking company of Monessen had been penalized by the food administration and compelled to close its bakery for a period of thirty days, because of violations of the order with reference to using wheat flour substitutes.

This company gave the Charleroi food administration a great deal of trouble a short time ago by coming into this community and selling bread in competition with the local bakers. The Monessen company was using but little if any substitutes, and as a consequence its bread sales reached a very high point. This condition of affairs was called to the attention of Mr. Darby, who made an investigation in connection with the local bakers' committee and a report made to the Westmoreland county authorities. The Vienna bakery also had quite a trade in Monongahela, which caused bakers there who were complying with the food regulations to enter a protest. All of these complaints finally resulted in thec losing of the bakery for a period of thirty days.

ADJOURNED PARTY TO CHEER FOR VICTORY

A party of young people from Belle Vernon, Monessen, Charleroi and Donora, motored to the woods near West Newton Thursday evening about 8:30 o'clock to enjoy a moonlight picnic. However, the party was not seated before Superintendent T. C. McKinley of the Belle Vernon glass works, brought them news of the latest American victory when all of them piled back into their cars and returned to town to participate in the celebration, afterwhich all went to the McKinley home where they enjoyed their picnic lunch. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Frank E. Ferren and Mrs. Arthur E. Sphar of Belle Vernon.

Word has been received by his parents that Calvin E. Higgins of Co. C, 308th Infantry has arrived safely in France.

U. S. May Commandeer All Large Steamboats

It is reported the United States will commandeer all of the large steam boats in the Pittsburg district, to be used in the lower river towing trade. The boats to be taken over are of the larger type and formerly used in the towing trade between Pittsburg, Louisville and New Orleans and which have been tied up at various leadings in and about the Pittsburg harbor.

The boats named are the Tom Dodsworth, Alice Brown, Raymond Horner, Boaz, W. K. Field, which is now on the marine way at Elizabeth, J. A. Donaldson, Valiant and the Wallace. The government has already taken charge of the Winnifred and a large number of barges, among them a number of new ones, which recently came down the Allegheny river to be used at the government plant at Nitro, W. Va.

The commandeering of these boats, if it actually takes place, will show that the government proposes to utilize the inland waterways of the country to a great extent in the transportation of heavy freight.

Frank Wolinski, a former police officer of Pittsburgh, of 1824 South Eighteenth street, Pittsburg, has been held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter by a coroner's jury in Pittsburg on Thursday. NEW TRIAL DENIED TO THE PLAINTIFF

Judge Bell of Clearfield county, who sat in this county in the hearing of cases at the February term of common pleas court, has handed down opinions in two cases, in which motions for new trials were filed, and recently argued and the verdicts of the jury allowed to stand.

In the suit of Michael Conway against the Webster, Monessen, Belle-Vernon & Fayette City street railway company, in which the plaintiff was awarded $170.94, the plaintiff's motion for a new trial was refused. Exceptions had been taken to certain of the court's rulings in the matter of the admission of certain evidence. Conway was injured while a passenger on one of the cars of the defendant company, when it ran into a cow and was derailed. He was thrown from his seat and injured. He alleged these injuries were of a srious character, while the defense minimized them.

MINGO COAL CO. BUYS MORE ACREAGE

Big coal transactions are taking place in Somerset township, this county a large number of tracts having changed hands within the past few days. The purchaser in every instances has been the Mingo Coal company, which already holds several thousands of acres in that locality, and which appears to be constantly adding to its already great field.

The latest transfer included the coal under the Beadle farm near No. 8 school house on Pigeon creek, and contains 151.095 acres, the consideration being $47,217.18. Those interested in the sale were John S. Chalfant and wife of East Washington, C. A. Chalfant, Fallowfield township, Wilbur F. Galbreath and wife of Pittsburg and A. W. Galbreath and wife of East Pike Run township.

The Mingo Coal company controls an opening to the Monongahela river in the borough of New Eagle and has some valuable river frontage, just below Monongahela which may some day be utilized in the development in the immense tract of coal now owned by it, and exceeding at the present time possibly over 15,000 acres.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS FAVOR INCREASE

More than 100 school districts in Pennsylvania have taken action supporting the plan of the State Board of Education for legislation which will have the Commonwealth pay 25 per cent of the salaries of the school teachers, which was presented a short time ago, and on which a number of studies are being made. At a meeting of the State Board in Pittsburg a committee was named to investigate sources of revenue available for meeting the increased appropriation and to point out that the principal object is to provide for equitable taxation and equalization of educational advantages to children throughout Pennsylvania.

To Be In Charleroi Next Tuesday Exening and Hold Open Meeting

GOOD SPEAKERS TO BE PRESENT

Burgess Woodward was in receipt of information on Friday that a Marine band of forty pieces would visit Charleroi next Tuesday evening July 23rd accompanied by two speakers on a recruiting mission. The band will arrive from Pittsburg on a special car over the Pittsburg Railways later a public meeting will be held in the open air, which will be addressed by the speakers who accompanied the band, as well as by some local speaker who will be selected for the occasion.

The object of the visit of the band is to recruit men for the new Marine regiment, to be 3,000 strong, which is being enlisted in the Pittsburg district and invitations will be extended to all Charleroi young men between the ages of 18 and 35, who can pass the necessary qualifications, to enlist in this unit. It is promised that the men will be kept together, trained together for an intensive period of 90 days, after which they will be sent to France for service.

In Pittsburg special efforts will be made all next week, which has been proclaimed Marine Week by Mayor Babcock, during which time recruiting parties will endeavor to secure the desired number of men. Outlying towns will also be visited. Charleroi among them, in the hope that many young men who have so far refrained from entering the service can be induced to enlist. The success of the great allied offensive is looked upon as a propitious time in which to recruit this regiment, as many young men will be fired with enthusiasm over the great victores which have come to the allied arms on the western battle front.

Burgess Woodward is arranging the details of the meeting, which will be held at the corner of Fifth and McKean at 7:30 o'clock. The Marine band will give a concert at that time and this will be followed by addresses by special speakers. Members of the draft boards from Ellsworth, Donora and Monessen have been invited and are expected to be present. The occasion will present an opportunity for local young men to join with a fighting unit which will be sent to France this coming fall.

THE UNIVERSALLY NEEDED FOOD

The war has taught us many things about food. It has taught us we can substitute corn, barley, rice and other cereals for wheat without any injury to our health. It has taught us we can substitute milk, cheese, nuts and eggs for meat, and sirups for sugar.

But there is one food for which neither this war nor any wars will ever teach us to use a substitute. This food is milk. Milk is the one food of universal necessity for children. It contains all the necessary food elements and there is no substitute for it. It is, in fact, the one food which is called "perfect."

Unfortunately, however, milk is often considered only a beverage instead of a highly nourishing good. For this reason, when the price of milk goes up a cent or two, many housewives reduce their milk order.

But this is not true economy, for milk at any price is the cheapest animal food. Twenty-five cents' worth of it will give more energy than twenty-five cents' worth of meat, eggs or fish. Worked out on the basis of how much food of different kinds one can get for twenty-five cents, in buying milk at twelve cents a quart one gets as much protein as in meat at twenty-five cents a pound, or eggs at thirty-five cents a dozen, or fresh cod at twenty cents a pound.

Some one may ask, "If milk is a perfect food, why can it not form a meal by itself?"

This is a pertinent question. The answer is that milk is seven-eighths water and hence is so dilute that an adult would have to drink quarts every day in order to get enough energy from it. Milk should be used in combination with more concentrated foods for producing energy in order to have a well balanced meal.

Children and invalids should have plenty of milk. Germany has been one of the first to recognize the absolute necessity of this, and in spite of her milk shortage, she has maintained at all hazards the full milk ration for German children and for the German hospitals.

This country is more fortunately situated than the other warring countries for we are able to give milk freely not only to our children and invalids but to all consumers. We must, of course, guard against waste.

The flush season, when the cows are on the grass is now on. This may not mean a sharp drop in the price of milk as some expect, for labor and cattle, feed have been high all winter and the dairyman has had his overhead expenses increased enormously.

But the intelligent housewife will realize that true economoy will not allow any reduction in her family's use of milk, no matter what the price is. Economy will lead her always to buy whole milk instead of cream, for the skim milk left in the creamery is often wasted. Take the top of the bottle for cereals, coffee and the like, have plenty for the children to drink, use sour milk and whey in cooking and make cottage cheese often to eat in place of meat.

GERMAN MAPS AND DESIGNS

Many people, patriotic at heart, still believe Germany had no designs upon America, even though they had conquered Europe. That it would have been better for us to have kept out of the fight, even at the cost of national humiliation.

This story is for them. It is very illuminating.

A prominent business man of Napoleon, Ohio, was in Germany when diplomatic relations were severed by the United States. Vainly he endeavored to get across the border into Switzerland. Every avenue was blocked, even though he was of German parentage. Finally he succeeded in getting an audience with the powers that controlled cases of this kind. He was put through a virtual third degree.

Eventually one of the officials reached down into a desk drawer and drew out a map. "You are from Napoleon, Ohio?" he asked. The Ohioan acquiesced.

"What country is it in, and what are the neighboring towns?"

The Napoleonite named the villages in detail, giving directions from Napoleon as well as distances.

"Hump!" grunted the official. "Right! And do you remember a certain cross roads?" naming it. The Ohioan remembered it.

"What sort of a tree stands there?" was the surprising inquiry.

Fortunately the Ohioan knew that tree. When he gave its variety instantly the official looked him over, convinced. "You're from Napoleon" he said.

And shortly afterward he was permitted to cross the border.

The point of all this lies here:

Why had Germany maps in such intimate detail of Henry county? And now extensively has her mapping system covered the United States? and what was her purpose in obtainng these maps?

Think it over.

And get ready to make your purchase of Liberty Bonds next October. For if Germany triumphs in Europe we will have to meet her at our own front gates.

GERMAN LOGIC

The world's stinging comment on the sinking of the hospital ship Llandovery Castle and the murder of the non-combatants on board seems to have penetrated the Hun's tough hide deeply enough to bring forth denial and defense. The argument of the German editors, as quoted, might be summed up as follows: "We did not sink the Llandovery Castle—a British mine did it—but when our U-boat sank this hospital ship we were simply justified by the circumstances of this war."

Such logic is of a piece with the German defense of the war in general. The war is merely to defend the fatherland against enemies seeking its destruction, but it is necessary. It is also necessary to hold all conquered territory to get possession of Great States, to pay an indemnity of fifty billions at the least. Meanwhile it is imperative to squeeze the life blood out of the people of all the conquered sections, making the exhausted Belgians, for example, pay a tax of $12,000,000 a month or about $150 a person. It is equally necessary to commit all manner of hideous atracities in order to terrorize Germany's enemies and bring them more quickly under subjection. In all this of course "the German God" is with the German people. The Kaiser has just called upon all Germans to rally round their "supreme war lord" in order "to win for the fatherland happiness and freedom"—freedom to throttle the world!—promising Divine help in this "just cause." Comment is needless.

AMERICAN VALOR

The valor of the American troops on the western battle front has been amply demonstrated. The events of the past few days show that the boys now on will get what is coming to them. The fighting of the past few days has been of the most terrific kind and the Americans and French have been making remarkable progress. The Germans have been almost demoralized by the ferocity of the allied attack and have been compelled to give up much territory, as well as thousands of prisoners and large stores of war supplies. It is evident that the so-called supermen of the German army have more than met their math in the lightning trained Yankee.

Ruthenians.

Ruthenian is the name given to Christian inhabitants of what was formerly known as "Little Russia," living in what is eastern Austria, and also in southeastern Poland. They use the ancient Greek liturgy translated into the old Slavonic tongue, though Roman Catholics professing obedience to the See of Rome. They have a married secular clergy, following what is known as the use of St. Basil. It should, however, be noted that the name is sometimes loosely applied in Canada to several Russian sects living in the West.

Testing Pleurisy With Coins.

A novel method of diagnosing pleurisy is described by P. Lereboullet in the Paris Medical. The examiner applies his ear to the patient's chest, closing his other ear, while coins are clinked at the patient's back. The sound of the coins coming through a healthy, normally aerated lung seems distant and dull, while through an affected lung, through solid or homogeneous tissue a clear, silvery, metallic ring is heard.

Truly King of Birds.

"Our national bird, the bald eagle, wild in its native haunts, is so large, so majestic, and flies with an evidence of so enormous strength, that one is impressed with the thought that here is the king of birds," writes T. Gilbert Pearson of the Audubon society. "On one occasion while eating my lunch in the shade of a little bush on a Southern prairie, I saw one carry off a lamb."

Advice for Letter Writers.

When sending a stamp in a letter instead of moistening one corner and sticking it to the paper, moisten a small spot in the center of the stamp and then affix it to your letter. The removal of a small part of the adhesive substance from the center in no way impairs the usefulness of the stamp; whereas it is often torn if the corner is fastened.

First Artesian Well.

The first artesian well to be bored in Europe of which data is available is the tube well at Grenelle, in France, which was sunk by the French government between 1834 and 1842, in the hope of obtaining a sufficient supply of water for Paris. The depth is 1,798 feet, at which level a prolific supply of water was reached.

Writer's Cramp.

Writer's cramp is a disease to which those who do much writing are liable toward middle age, and a person afflicted with it has no complete control over the muscles of the thumb, middle and forefinger. The typewriter has proved the best resource of those who suffer from the ailment.

Sing Care Away.

Someone has said that we can sing away our cares more easily than we can reason them away, and that is lucky for those of you girls whose logic is not your strong point. Whether your voice is weak or strong, try singing as a cure for the blues.

No Happy Medium.

Said the almost-philosopher: "The fellow who used to hide his light under a bushel is now either unable to buy a bushel or has become so wealthy that he advertises that light with an outfit of star shells and skysearchers."

The first envelope of which there is any knowledge inclosed a letter sent in 1696, by Sir William Turnbull to Sir James Ogilve. The epistle, with its coverlags, is still preserved in the British museum.

Automobile War Time Service Policy

The War Economy Board has requested the discontinuance of free service and inspections, and the closing of repair shops, accessory stores and salesrooms, both for new and used cars, after 6:00 P. M. nights and all day Sundays and holidays, and the placing of the retail automobile business on a cash basis throughout the country, for the purpose of releasing mechanical and clerical help for war purposes.

The Recommendations of the War Service Committee of the War Economy Board of the Council of National Defense Includes:

1—The elimination of all unnecessary service requiring the use of mechanics whose services might be released for Government work.

2—Discontinuance of issuing free service coupon books and service cards that cause unnecessary work of a minor character, such as adjustments, etc., which the owner can make himself.

3—Closing of repair shops, salesrooms, accessory stores, parts departments, etc., at 6:00 p. m. daily and all day Sunday and holidays.

4—Designating one or more repair shops, according to size of cities, where emergency work nights, Sundays and holidays can be handled, releasing a large amount of labor now required to keep open a large number of repair establishments

5—Establishing a cash basis for labor, parts, material and supplies, thus eliminating a lot of unnecessary work, reducing office help and maintenance, freeing this class of labor for war purposes.

6—Education of mechanics and the encouragement of apprentices in shops is urged in all cities where schools can be organized in garages, under the auspices of dealers, at night and at odd times.

7—Urge all owners to inspect their equipment, tools, tires, etc., for the purpose of being able to take care of minor repairs on the road themselves.

8—Save gasoline, oil, grease and material where possible. Enforce economical shop methods and reduce number of demonstrating cars used by salesmen.

In accordance With the Above Request

Commencing Monday, July 15, 1918

The Automobile Dealers of Washington County

will observe the War Department's recommendation as above noted, and the co-operation of all automobile owners is urgently requested.

TUBE MILL WILL FORM WAR CHEST

Advanced steps have been taken by the Pittsburg Steel Products company in the systematic collection of funds from the employes for various war purposes. As this plant is popularly known as the Tube mill a "Tube Mill War Chest Fund" will be started with the current month.

The move was inaugurated by General Superintendent M. Wikstrom and the local officials, after a consultation with the city offices on the matter. So much confusion and bother has been caused by the various collections and deductions from the pay that it was believed best to place the entire matter upon a systematic and voluntary basis.

The five larger war services are covered by the outlay from the War Chest. Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, K. of C., and the Y. M. W. C. Dues will becollected monthly from the members of this War Chest minimum $1 and maximum $2. It is explicitly stipulated in the notices that no other collections shall be made at the plant.

A board of directors consisting of 15 representatives of the plant will handle the fund. Supt. Wikstrom is made president; J. D. Case, treasurer and S. Watkins, secretary. It is expected that every employe will become a member.

CHARLEROI EVIDENCE FOR CHARLEROI PEOPLE

The Satements of Charleroi Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof.

Public statements of Charleroi people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites you doubts.

Here's a Charleroi woman's statement.

And it's for Charleroi people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Chas. Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, says: "I suffered from a severe attack of kidney trouble. I noticed pains across the small of my back and I had headaches and a constant, tired feeling. Nothing helped me. After using Doan's Kidney Pills a few days, I felt better and I continued their use until I was permanently cured."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mrs. Bromwich. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 46

THE POWER OF A TEN DOLLAR BILL

Consider the power of a Ten Dollar Bill when it is spent at home. It is like magic. It circulates. It pays off a huudred obligations. It creates business and puts people to work in our community. But the ten dollar bill that is sent away to the out-of-town house does nothing for our town. It becomes dead to us. It is out of commission for ever as far as our town is concerned. We never see it again. Let us. then, give power to the money we spend. Let us remember that our best investment is that power-money that we spend at home.
